

Lifestyle › Travel

11 of the best ski and spa breaks in Europe

After a day of off-piste skiing, reward your body with a soak in one of these luxe spas

LAURA HAMPSON | 17 hours ago |  0 comments

Le Grand Bellevue in Gstaad, Switzerland

Postcard perfect (Le Grand Bellevue)

Whether your beat is skiing off-piste, cross country skiing or husky sledding, they've got it all in Gstaad. The magical snow-dusted Swiss town becomes a winter wonderland come December and there's no better place to stay than at the Le Grand Bellevue hotel. With views of the surrounding Alps in the rooms, you'll find the real star of the hotel is the 3,000 square-metre spa with its 17 different wellness zones, a thermal oasis, ice fountain and steam baths. If you're looking for something extra special, there's also an alpine spa suite for couples to book bespoke treatments and enjoy a Rasul steam bath.

Signature treatment: the Swiss repair & de-stress facial is designed to renew and restore sun-damaged and tired skin.

Rooms from £587 per night. The Swiss repair & de-stress facial is £150 for 50 minutes. bellevue-gstaad.ch/