

New General Manager at Le Grand Bellevue Gstaad

Adrien de Haller to take over as General Manager at Le Grand Bellevue in Gstaad

Gstaad, November 27, 2024 – The five-star superior hotel Le Grand Bellevue in Gstaad announces the appointment of Adrien de Haller as its new General Manager, starting February 1st, 2025. Over a decade ago, de Haller was already part of the Le Grand Bellevue team. He now returns, bringing a wealth of experience and fresh ideas to shape the future of this renowned establishment.

Le Grand Bellevue is opening a new chapter and welcomes Adrien de Haller, a trusted and experienced hotelier, as its new General Manager. De Haller was already part of the team over a decade ago and is now returning to take over the operational management of the five-star superior hotel in Gstaad from February 1st, 2025.

Adrien de Haller brings extensive expertise from his previous roles with Michel Reybier Hospitality and the AEVIS VICTORIA Group, where he served as Hotel Manager at La Réserve Eden au Lac in Zurich and Deputy General Manager at the Bellevue Palace Bern. His career also includes leading the Clinique de Montchoisi, reopening the Crans Ambassador in Crans-Montana, and launching the Ristorante Saponi in Interlaken. From 2018 to 2020, de Haller managed the operations of Hotel Palafitte in Neuchâtel, part of the Sandoz Foundation Hotels.

Born and raised in Basel until the age of 18, Adrien de Haller has a deep connection to the Saanenland region. These ties were nurtured through numerous family visits and his first internship in the Bernese Oberland, where he met his wife. Today, he is married, a father of two, and a graduate of the prestigious École Hôtelière de Lausanne (EHL).

“Adrien embodies hospitality in his very nature and has deep roots in Gstaad,” says Daniel Koetser, Owner and Chairman of the Board at Le Grand Bellevue. “His warmth and energy align perfectly with our values, and I am confident that the team will welcome him with open arms.”

About Le Grand Bellevue

Le Grand Bellevue is one of the oldest and most iconic luxury hotels in Gstaad. It combines the sophistication of a grand hotel with the inviting charm of a cozy country house. Guests are greeted by warm colors, whimsical House of Hackney wallpapers, intricate Neisha Crosland fabrics, and a stunning 17-meter Chesterfield sofa by George Smith. Nestled within a private park, the hotel enjoys a prime location directly on Gstaad's promenade, offering the perfect balance of centrality and tranquility.

The five-star superior hotel features 48 rooms and 9 suites, renowned for their unparalleled quality, personalized atmosphere, and exceptional cuisine at LEONARD's. For a taste of Swiss tradition, the quaint fondue restaurant Le Petit Chalet awaits in the hotel garden. Culinary highlights also include an exclusive wine cellar, a sushi bar with take-away service, and private dining in LEONARD's Cellar. Additional amenities include a private cinema, the bouquet cocktail lounge, and the 3,000-square-meter Le Grand Spa. In recognition of its exceptional offerings, Le Grand Bellevue was included in the Condé Nast Traveller Gold List for the 2017/2018 winter season.
