A WINTER PAUSE

Sometimes, the greatest luxury is having nowhere else to be.

Le Grand Bellevue Gstaad invites you to experience a rather special winter retreat: an opportunity to step away from everyday life, rediscover your creativity and make time for the things that so often get overlooked. After more than two decades in luxury hospitality and wellness, Kiki Osada founded Analog Connection, driven by a growing curiosity about what meaningful wellbeing looks like beyond comfort and convenience. In an increasingly connected digital world, Analog Connection brings people together in person to exchange ideas and foster genuine human connections.

What awaits you during your three-day retreat

- Peaceful winter walks amidst Gstaad's mountain scenery
- Creative moments through journalling, painting and knitting
- Inspiring conversations, storytelling and book exchanges
- Opportunities for personal reflection and discovering new perspectives
- Restorative moments in the 3'000 m^2 Le Grand Spa
- Delightful evenings and time simply for yourself

Kiki Osada will guide you throughout the retreat, creating an inspiring setting that you are free to shape according to your own needs. Whether you immerse yourself in a creative project, connect with fellow participants or prefer to spend an afternoon at the spa, the choice is entirely yours.

Because A Winter Pause offers much to discover, but nothing to accomplish.
Your retreat package starts from CHF 1'500 and includes

- Two nights at Le Grand Bellevue, including half board
- Participation in the full retreat programme, designed and led by Kiki Osada and conducted in English
- Access to the 3'000 m^2 Le Grand Spa with its 17 wellness zones
- 20% off massages and facial treatments
